COUNCIL ORDERS POLICE CHIEF AND 4 OFFICERS TO RESIGN

IDEALS OF ROTARY TOLD AT CHARTER PRESENTATION

Local Club Holds Dinner and Social Session; Program Is Large Success

Driving home the ideals of Rotary by his "Block Talk," Carl Rosenberg of Los Angeles last night featured the charter presentation dinner given last night by the local club with more than three score members and friends present at the Chamber of Commerce banquet hall. Roy L. Kent, vice-president of the organization, received the charter, in the absence of President C. C. Cooper, from Elliot B. Wyman, representative of Charles B. Bills, district governor of Rotary International.

William G. Farrell also addressed the clubmen and gave them both the serious and humorous angles on Rotary's purposes. William Graham of Chicago, International Convention, secretary; William Stephens of Los Angeles, convention committee chairman; and other guests spoke briefly.

Six Points Emphasized

The six points in success emphasized by Mr. Rosenberg, who is accredited with knowing the selling end of business backward and forward, are as follows:

First—A Worthy Vocation. "Are you engaged in one?" he asked.

Second—Self Improvement. "Don't look like a celluloid collar club," was his advice.

Third—Ambition to Succeed. "Justice and morality are essential," he said.

Fourth—Honesty. "Be honest to yourself, your employees and the people who trust you," was the text of this thought.

Fifth—Elevating Standards. "Try to buy the loyalty of your employees for nothing and you will get just that," stated the speaker, in urging the point.

Sixth—Service. "Not only that service which makes for efficiency, but it is that added service we have to render if we are to be considered successful and it is Rotary that produces that spirit," he concluded, and (Continued on Page 3.)

Bids Are Sought for Intermediate School

Bids are being readjusted for the construction of the New Intermediate School by Architect Alfred F. Priest, of 1422 North Central avenue. Each bidder is expected to quote a price upon the building both with and without an auditorium.

The bids will be opened on March 28. Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, this morning called attention to the fact that this means a delay of precisely one month from the time the former bids were opened.

Mr. White has been informed, however, that the building can be completed in 120 days. Therefore, he is hopeful that it will be ready for occupation with the beginning of the next school year.

In order to ascertain whether or not the construction of the building without the auditorium by one of the former bidders without difficulty, Superintendent White and Architect Priest made a special call upon Attorney Jerry Powell of the county counsel's office. They were informed that such action might be obstructed by any one.

Mr. and Mrs. Messerly Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Messerly, of 640 North Orange street, entertained with a dinner party last night in celebration of their silver wedding anniversary. A color scheme of pink was carried out in the decorations. After dinner dancing and cards were enjoyed.

FORMER RESIDENTS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. George Lamoreaux, of Los Angeles, former residents of Glendale, were in Glendale visiting with friends and former neighbors during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Lamoreaux had been living in Santa Barbara for the past year of this city.

The afternoon session was given over to the election of officers. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Jennie Dossie, who also gave an interesting talk on "What a Dollar Can Do," in reference to mission work. Reports of various committee chairmen were given. A vocal selection by Mrs. Arthur Sisley was very much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Home From Trip East

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans of 333 North Orange street, have returned from a month's business and pleasure trip to New York City and other eastern points. They found the city in Washington, Albany, Buffalo and Chicago by friends. Mr. and Mrs. Evans had the pleasure of viewing Niagara Falls with its mantle of snow and ice and describe it as appearing like a fairyland. They found the weather agreeably nice, it being a mild winter. Business conditions east of Chicago were not very favorable, and they found that most of the business in the west and were pleased to get back to Glendale.

Edwards, Mrs. F. A. Alspach, Mrs. Clark Johnson, Mrs. E. W. Evans and the hostess, Mrs. F. G. Hartman.

FIRST NATIONAL WILL BE MERGED WITH SECURITY TRUST

Savings Bank, Auxiliary to Institution, Also to Be a Part of Organization

The First National Bank of Glendale, with its auxiliary institution, the First Savings Bank, will be merged with the Security Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles, and the institution at Brand and Broadway will become the Glendale branch of the Los Angeles institution.

Announcement of the merger was made today by Cashier R. F. Kitterman, of the First National, who will become a vice-president of the Security Bank, and manager of the Glendale branch.

"The distinctly local nature of the institution will be maintained," said Mr. Kitterman. "The stockholders, who are Glendale citizens, will become stockholders of the Security Bank. A local advisory board will be created to act with the officers of the branch on all matters which involve the close identification of the branch with this community. No extensive changes in the personnel are contemplated, so Glendale patrons will continue to meet the same faces and the same general policy for the up-building of the city, that have characterized the bank in the past."

Statement by Mr. Toll.

Charles H. Toll, vice-president of the Security bank said: "I am of course much gratified to have our bank definitely located in Glendale, which has been my own home for so many years, and with which, as a community, I have been so deeply interested. The First National has been an institution of which Glendale had a right to be proud, but the growth of the community and the development of larger business concerns have created a need for banks with a greater loaning power."

"Los Angeles is the center of a community of which Glendale is an integral part, and which includes Pasadena, Hollywood, Long Beach, and the Harbor. This whole region is bound together in its progress and prosperity, and what helps the growth of any one of the members, helps all of them. The extension of the Security Bank into Long Beach, Pasadena, and Hollywood has been found by all those communities to be a helpful thing to their local growth and prosperity, and I believe that Glendale will undergo the same experience as these others."

U. S. SERVICE CROSS IS BESTOWED UPON GLENDALE MAN

Captain Charles Chenoweth, Wounded in World War, Says, 'I'm Luckiest Man'

"I am the luckiest man in the world," thus exclaimed Captain Charles Chenoweth, with an expansive smile, yesterday afternoon in front of his new home at 328 West Lexington drive, where he has come to enjoy the serenity of Southern California.

Although not exactly a "he-Pollyanna," Captain Chenoweth feels that he has many things for which to be thankful: his life, unconquerable optimism and the highest honor which it is possible for the United States to bestow upon one of its sons, the Distinguished Service Cross.

When the world war broke out, Captain Chenoweth, who has spent a large part of his life in the regular army, had just returned from service in China. As soon as the United States entered the war, he was called to the Presidio at San Francisco and, as a seasoned veteran, given command of a company in the newly organized Ninety-first Division. After a service at Camp Lewis, Captain Chenoweth accompanied his command overseas.

Death for Germans.

At the Battle of the Argonne, his company was the "combat liaison." Directly in its path was a Boche machine gun company. Captain Chenoweth divided the 220 men under his command into two platoons. A lieutenant led one and he led the other on a flanking movement which ended in the death of about twenty of the Huns and the capture of seven machine guns.

Meanwhile, the other companies of the division had advanced about 300 yards. While his men remained behind in hastily dug "fox burrows," Captain Chenoweth went forward to reconnoiter and observe the exact location of the new line in order that there might be no loss of life by his company in getting to their new position.

Just after he had started back, an unfriendly shell exploded five feet

A. R. EASTMAN NOW HEADS GLENDALE STATE BANK

Charles H. Toll Resigns From Presidency Because of His Extending Interests

Charles H. Toll has resigned as president of the Glendale State bank, owing to the fact that the Security Trust & Savings Bank of Los Angeles, of which he is a vice-president, has taken over the First National of Glendale and the latter will be operated as a branch of the Los Angeles institution, it is said.

Mr. Toll felt that he could not retain a personal interest in the Glendale State bank, inasmuch as the Security Trust & Savings bank will extend their operations to this city, although personally he will continue to be identified with local interests, both in a financial and civic capacity.

A. R. Eastman at Head

At the regular directors' meeting of the Glendale State bank, held on Wednesday, March 8, the resignation of Mr. Toll was accepted and A. R. Eastman, quite widely known in southern California and middle western banking circles, was unanimously elected president; Howard W. Walker remains as vice-president; C. D. Lusby, cashier, and George E. Farmer, assistant cashier.

In addition to Mr. Eastman, the directorate is composed of the following well-known local people: Howard W. Walker, capitalist and builder; C. D. Lusby, who has been identified with banks here for ten years past; Attorney W. E. Evans, who served long as counsel for the city; Peter L. Perry, paving contractor; C. E. Kimlin, business manager of the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, and Oma A. Fish, builder.

Local People Own Stock

All of the stock of the Glendale State bank, it is stated, is owned by people residing here and it will remain strictly a representative Glendale institution such as it has been in the past with its paid-up capital stock of $100,000.

This bank opened for business September 26, 1921, and at this time is making a statement of $594,000 total resources, a statement paid by the people who have confidence in the integrity and business ability of the organizers.

HEARS CHARGES AGAINST HEAD OF DEPARTMENT, AND, BY VOTE OF 3 TO 2, DECIDES REMOVALS NECESSARY

Captain Wm. A. Loving Put In Temporary Control by City Manager Reeves; Some of Ex-Employees May Seek Reinstatement, It Is Intimated

AT THE CONCLUSION of the hearing last night of charges brought against Allen O. Martin, chief of police of Glendale, the city council, after deliberating in the committee of the whole, decided, by a vote of three to two, to "disregard" all testimony produced and "for the sake of harmony" to instruct W. H. Reeves, city manager, to call for the resignations of:

ALLEN O. MARTIN, chief of police.
GEORGE J. HERDA, detective sergeant.
GEORGE DELGARDO, detective sergeant.
WALTER E. TRAUTWEIN, motorcycle officer.
J. BALTHAZAR, patrolman.

Councilmen A. H. Lapham, C. E. Kimlin and Dwight W. Stephenson voted for the motion, made by Lapham, causing the removal of the police department head and the four officers. Mayor Spencer Robinson and Councilman S. A. Davis voted against the motion.

Acting, it was explained, under provisions of the city charter, the council then informed the city manager to assume charge of the police department and direct its re-organization.

The city manager's first official act in this connection was to issue the following to the department:

General Order No. 1. I have this day appointed Captain William A. Loving acting chief of police. He should be obeyed and respected accordingly.

With the city council chamber packed to the doors, people perched in windows, in the hallways and occupying all available space, the hearing of the charges against Chief Martin opened early and closed late.

It was after midnight before the jury—the council—brought in its verdict. Yet a number of people, especially those directly concerned, remained to hear the councilmen's statements.

The charges against Chief Martin were filed by the following:

CARLOS A. BLIX, former desk sergeant and patrolman, who now is selling carburetors for a local manufacturing firm. He resides at 423 West Maple avenue.

MRS. A. G. SMITH, wife of a local building contractor, who resides at 661 West Lexington Drive.

FRANK WALKER, formerly an employee of the Glendale Patrol and Fire Dispatch, who was freed recently on a petit larceny charge by a jury in Police Judge J. H. Lowe's court.

QUA BALTHAZAR, former desk sergeant, who was dismissed from the department, although it was reported he had resigned on request.

GEORGE HERDA, police detective, presently employed under Chief Martin. He resides at 600 North Maryland avenue.

IRA J. HERBERT, principal in the Glendale Patrol and Fire Dispatch with offices at 249 North Brand boulevard.

WALTER E. TRAUTWEIN, motorcycle officer, of 1144 North Adams Place.

No Attorneys Permitted

The council ruled against permitting attorneys to conduct the inquiry. Most of the direct questioning was done by Councilman Stephenson, who is a lawyer.

Rules of evidence and recognized court methods did not prevail. The council decided to "let down the bars" and the hearing was a free-for-all, with the "short and ugly word" passed several times; with charges and counter-charges; with stories of threats and "frame-ups"; with witnesses telling their stories in their own way; with testimony interrupted with arguments; with arguments turned to testimony.

Chance to Come Back

After the council had announced its verdict, Councilman Stephenson stated to Officer Delgado:

There will be a new chief of police, some time. I don't know who he is. There is nothing in the wide world

Stenographic Report of Investigation Made Into Charges Against Chief of Police Martin

Here is a transcript of testimony, with certain necessary eliminations, of the hearing of the charges against Allen O. Martin, chief of police:

The Mayor: At this time we have Walter Trautwein's complaint against A. O. Martin, Chief of Police. I ask the clerk to read them.

The Chief of Police: What rules are you going to follow in this case? I suggest that the witnesses be sworn.

The Mayor: Chief of Police Martin: They be sworn in the proper manner and confine themselves to charges and no counter charges permitted.

The Mayor: Absolutely.

To the City Council of the City of Glendale, State of California:

Walter Trautwein, Complainant and Affiant vs. A. O. Martin, Defendant.

County of Los Angeles, State of California, ss:

Walter Trautwein, being duly sworn, deposes and says: that he is the affiant and complainant hereinafter mentioned and further deposes and says that all the facts, statements and allegations contained in this complaint are true to the best of his knowledge, information, memory and belief.

Comes now the complainant above named, Walter Trautwein, and for cause of action against A. O. Martin, herein declared, complains and alleges as follows, to-wit:

1. That Walter Trautwein, affiant above named, is at the present time, and has been employed as police officer and motorcycle officer of the Glendale Police Department, for approximately three years last past.

2. That affiant has reason to believe and does believe that defendant has received the sum of $10,000 in a defamatory and slanderous manner without just cause or reason, in the presence of one or more witnesses.

Therefore, affiant prays a hearing before the Council of the City of Glendale, at which time said Council will inquire into the truth of the foregoing charges of this affiant.

(Signed) Walter Trautwein.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 6th day of March, 1922.

Notary Public in and for the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

Officer Is Sworn

Mr. Martin: Before that is answered I presume I will be given an opportunity to make an address if I want to in answer to these charges.

Mr. Stephenson: I would suggest, Mr. Mayor, that first Mr. Trautwein be sworn to substantiate the charges and let him put on any defense he wishes.

The Mayor: Is Mr. Trautwein here?

The Voice: Yes.

Mr. Martin: Mr. Mayor, if any attorney is going to represent the other side, (Continued on Page 6)

Billy Farrell of Salt Lake Assumes Full Responsibility

Trust to an Irishman to let the cat out of the bag?

In providing the froth at the Glendale Rotarians' charter dinner last night, Billy Farrell, former president of the Salt Lake club, went on to say—

"Rotary is just like a woman. Each club is just alike because they are different."

"She means just what she says, when she says it, but not ten minutes later."

"Yet if you give her the opportunity she will tell you what she means then, too."

"Remember, Rotary is a transmission wheel through which the forces of loyalty and progress, latent in every community, are made effective aids to every purpose."

Good Time Assured at Legion's Dance, Says Chalmers Day

The American Legion dance tomorrow night, will be a large affair, according to officers of the local post.

Congeniality will be a feature of the evening in the opinion of Chalmers Day, member of the entertainment committee.

"Everyone is assured of having a good time," says Gordon Clayton, another member. "All those who have attended Legion dances in the past, have had a very pleasant evening. The Legionnaires are known to be successful in every social affair that they undertake."

"Ratnay's syncopators, who are well known to Glendale dance patrons, will be on hand to furnish the music for the affair."

"Tickets can be procured from any of the Legion boys, or at the hall, 610 East Broadway, tomorrow night. This is not a strictly Legion dance, and friends of the Legion are cordially invited to attend," says Mr. Day.

An attendance of about seventy couples was expected and that punch would be served, under the direction of Mitchell Frug, of 123 North Kenwood street, chairman of the house committee. Officers of the post will serve on the reception committee.

NEW POLICY IS EXPECTED

LONDON, March 10.—A stiffened Indian policy is expected to follow the resignation of E. S. Montagu, secretary for India, according to opinions expressed today. Sir Hamar Greenwood, secretary for Ireland, was mentioned as a possible successor. Sir Hamar's office will be abolished when the house of lords passes the Irish free state act.

Apprehension is felt here that the ousting of Mr. Montagu may result in fresh disorders in India. The former secretary was very close to the Moslem element of the population. Dispatches from Delhi said that feeling was running high. According to a Reuter dispatch from Delhi, the leader of the Indian non-co-operationists, or nationalists, is imminent.

TRADE BODIES ARE LEGAL

Activities of trade associations do not contravene the provisions of the Sherman anti-trust law, in the view of Attorney-General Daugherty, unless in actual practice they develop enhanced prices, suppressed competition or curtailed production. The opinion of Mr. Daugherty, expressed informally and tentatively, was made public by Secretary Hoover, who had inquired of the Attorney General as to the legal limits within which trade associations could properly operate in connection with the Commerce Department's plan for the publication of trade statistics gathered by such organizations.

PETITION BRYAN TO RUN

MIAMI, Fla., March 10.—Petitions were issued here for circulation throughout the state asking William Jennings Bryan to become a candidate for United States senator to succeed Senator Park Trammell. The petitions are addressed to Bryan in letter form and state that the signers believe that the former secretary of state is "eminently qualified" to represent Florida as a United States senator.

Circulation of the petition was started after Bryan declared that he would not make the race and suggested he should be "invited" to take part in the senatorial contest.

NEW PUMP IS PURCHASED

A new pump for a well which has just been completed is being purchased by the Crescenta Mutual Water company, according to William M. Mills, secretary. This will increase the supply of water 30 inches and make three times as much water available. Mr. Mills calls attention to the fact that La Crescenta and Montrose, which are served by this company, have doubled in population during the past six months.

AT DOOR OF STARVATION

Dollar Day Success, Merchants Agree As They Look at Sales

"Wonderful! The biggest thing ever put over in Glendale. A complete success."

Such are the remarks being heard today in the various stores as a result of the Dollar Day held yesterday in which The Glendale Evening News played a large part, by carrying the merchants' messages to the residents of this vicinity.

In fact, the columns of this paper were used exclusively by more than 50 per cent of those sharing in the benefits, and all acclaim the business getting powers of The Glendale Evening News.

As advertised, everything was done according to schedule and there seems to be no doubt but what greater events are in store for our readers of "the home town paper."

TELLS OF RUSSIA'S PLANS

MOSCOW, March 10.—Russia is going into the Genoa conference to lay the foundation for "big business," according to Nicolai Lenin, in an address to the metal workers here.

"Russia welcomes participation in the Genoa conference," said Lenin. "We are going there in the position of traders beginning to do business. But we know there are great future possibilities."

"It must be admitted that the economic policy of Russia has been changed. But this change will not permit us to submit to insults from the 'White' armies of the foreign capitalists."

"We crushed the previous attack with a reign of terror, and if the capitalistic powers attempt to prevent us from carrying out our plans we will be able to do the same thing again."

Lenin admitted that the change constituted a "retreat" from the original policy of the Soviet.

TERRIBLE PLIGHT OF RUSSIANS SEEMS UNBELIEVABLE

Carl E. Floete, American Relief Worker, Paints Vivid Word Picture of Tragedy

NEW YORK—A ghastly picture of famine conditions in Russia, where the American Relief Administration is feeding 1,000,000 children and giving hope to all of Russia, was given here by Carl E. Floete, one of the administration's workers who returned recently after three months spent in the Volga district. Floete broke down under the strain of the work and being cut off from the outside world for weeks, and had to leave temporarily.

"I hope to go back," he said. "The organization is saving that part of Russia and could do much more if it had more funds. No one who has not seen it can have any idea what famine is like. It is terrible beyond words. People are dying in the streets every day. Those who exist from day to day do so only by eating the carcasses of horses and dogs and cats that also have starved."

"I went with a child-feeding station that has headquarters at Samara, and feeds 50,000 children. My own headquarters in this district were at Pugachov, a village about 125 miles south of Samara, but which, owing to poor transportation, it took five days to reach by railroad. Most of the supplies went in over this road, although some were conveyed by half-dead horses."

"Apathy Most Awful Thing"

"The most awful thing about the people is their apathy. They don't care, and just wait from day to day until they shall drop beside other members of their family who went first. The dead lie in the streets where they fall. In the houses the men, women and children sit hopelessly against the walls staring into vacancy and waiting for death. I was the only American man they had ever seen, but they were hardly interested in me, even when they knew I brought food."

"They used to take it in their hands, with tears in their eyes, and look at it and say 'espiabo,' which means 'thank you.' They were more pathetic than anything I have ever seen. I used to go down there to feed them and cry by the hour. What misery! Their little arms were mere sticks, their stomachs were bloated from eating clay, their eyes deep sunken. But after we had fed them a little while we could see their eyes become clear and their cheeks fill out a little, and they got better. Those we could feed will live, the others will die, and at present we can feed only from 25 to 40 per cent."

"Women used to come in and beg for food for their children, but we did not have enough for all and it was the hardest thing I ever did to refuse them. We gave them white bread nearly every day, rice pudding twice a week, beans twice a week and cocoa twice a week. That is not much, but it was a luxury to them."

"Camels Only Comfort"

"There was so little food in the district that after my beans ran out in the first few weeks I had only two meals a day, bread and soup. And I felt then as if I was robbing the people. The isolation was trying, for, aside from my interpreter, there was no other white man in the village. The camels were my only comfort. I always thought camels needed a warm climate, but there were hundreds of them, and all were fat. How they kept fat I don't know, although they would eat anything, even nails. When I got unusually downhearted one of these ludicrous camels would bray and cheer me up. The people don't kill them because they are too valuable; they are the only means of transport left."

"There is absolutely no seed left in the district, and what the people will do for crops next year is more than I can see. On my trip out I did not see a single blade of winter wheat, and that section used to be

Kern County Grand Jury and Officials Have K. K. K. Probe

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., March 10.—With the Kern county grand jury convening here today and with county and Bakersfield city officials working in harmony to investigate the disorders alleged to be emanating from the Ku Klux Klan in the west side oil fields, the crux of the situation is believed to be about reached. Twenty witnesses from Taft were in the corridors of the court house this morning awaiting the grand jury's pleasure.

Several new warnings are said to have been received by Bakersfield citizens during the past twenty-four hours, but the police are reticent about giving out the names of the recipients.

Yesterday at Taft, A. M. Keene, editor of the Daily Midway Driller, received a letter mailed at Los Angeles, purporting to have been sent by the Ku Klux Klan. Keene published the letter in his paper. Following publishing of the letter, Keene received another letter late last night. It was shoved under the door of his office. The second letter follows:

"We note the so-called K. K. K. letter published in your paper this date. We beg to advise you and all others that received letters which are supposed to come from us, that unless they are written upon this letterhead, they are not genuine. There are no finger prints on this letter which you may turn over to 'Little' Pyles, or the Fresno 'screach.'"

(Signed):
TAFT KLAN NUMBER 3, REALM OF CALIFORNIA."

Joe Burnett, World War veteran, by shooting through the door of his home southeast of Taft late yesterday, frightened away an armed gang which had surrounded his dwelling and demanded that he come out.

Burnett, in a statement to the police, declared he was unable to explain the visit of the gang. He said he could not identify the man as being associated with any hooded gangs that have been operating in this vicinity recently. He was unable to furnish any clues to the attack. Officers declared that no further activities were reported during the night or today.

It is now asserted in Taft that there is another body of hooded night riders operating in that region, and that they have been styled the "black beauties." Indications are that the "beauties" and the "klansmen" are in opposition to each other, and that a battle between the white hoods and the black hoods may take place at any time in the west side.

In the meantime people are being driven out of Kern county. They are not stopping to consider the source of warnings, but are taking no chances.

the great granary of Europe."

Mr. Floete was in Pugachov at the time a woman bandit, famous throughout all the Volga region as the companion of the Cossack Chief Sarof, raided the town at the head of 500 other men and women Cossacks. The bandits took all the food and stores in the town, with the exception of American stores, which they did not touch.

"Wagons Not To Be Touched"

"We heard they were coming the day before," Mr. Floete said. "All the village officials left town, only the Communist troops remaining. On the way in the Cossacks passed some of our wagons, but as soon as they learned who they belonged to they gave orders that the wagons were not to be touched. Sarof also told his band that anyone who went to the American warehouse would be shot."

"When they rode into town they were led by this woman, one of the most beautiful women I ever saw. I suppose she had charge of the women in the shops. They were all dressed in sheepskins and rode splendid horses. There was no sign of famine among them, and I learned that they raided the country at will for food and other supplies, and that everybody was afraid of them."

Out of a population of 4,700,000, 600 the world contains only 550,000 white inhabitants.

A Personal Statement

in regard to

MOUNTAIN VIEW TRACT

We wish to announce to you that we are again managing and selling the lots at the Mountain View Tract in the Laurel Avenue District, and will be pleased to show you the property, what we have already accomplished, and what we intend to do. If "you are from Missouri," perhaps you will have to wait awhile longer until we show you, but if you do, I will assure you that you will have to pay for it, for when we have shown you what we are going to do, the price will be quite a large per cent higher, so why not buy now and get the benefit of the improvements? If you buy from us you can rest assured you will not be surrounded by a lot of temporary homes. Not but what the people that build the temporary homes are just as good in every way as you and I, but, from an investment standpoint or place to live, we all know that a restricted district is the place to invest. Our restrictions are not high ($2500.00) but I am personally interested in making this tract a beauty spot and a subdivision to be proud of. Come out any old time and we will give you our personal attention, and we will get acquainted and will tell you not to buy unless you are satisfied that it is a good investment.

Yours for business and pleasure

W. H. ARMSTRONG, Manager.

This subdivision includes all street work, water, light, gas, and is situated on the San Fernando Road, near Glendale City Limits, the tract office being nearly opposite the Burbank Milling Company.

Glendale Bookkeeping System Is Inspected

L. M. Anderson, controller, and D. S. Parks, auditor of the Los Angeles public service department, visited the Glendale public service department yesterday. The object of this visit was to examine the duplex system used in handling meter reading, billing, collecting and accounting, also the billing and bookkeeping machine used in connection therewith.

The local department has a system for handling its business which is a combination of speed and accuracy, so simplified as to get maximum results with the least possible expense, and has attracted considerable attention from other cities. Within the past four months delegations from Riverside, Redlands, Monrovia, Burbank, the Los Angeles Gas & Electric company in addition to the above named visitors of yesterday, have inspected this system and have all been pleased with it. Some of them are adopting it in their public service departments.

ward. I didn't know I was going to go it. I didn't expect it. I was sure that I would not have to work on the job because I didn't concern Glendale in the first place. It was a case out in Long Beach. As far as my telling the chief I was to go a week, that is untrue, absolutely false. I never made any kind of a statement like that at all.

The Mayor: Well, go on to the next one.

The Chief: Have I got a right to tell what kind of a man this fellow is?

The Mayor: No.

Chief Martin: Have I got a right to show his character, a man that would be capable of making a statement of that kind.

Mr. Herda: Give him the permission to answer.

The Mayor: No, I don't think we want to indulge in any personalities. I think we should stick to the facts. We are through with Mr. Herda. Let us wake up with George Delgado's charges.

George Delgado Charged

The clerk read the charges of George C. Delgado, as follows: "To the City Council of the City of Glendale, California: I, George C. Delgado, of the State of California—ss. George Delgado, complainant and affiant, vs. A. O. Herda, defendant.

"George Delgado, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the complainant in the above entitled case. He further deposes and says: that all the facts, statements and allegations contained in his complaint are true to the best of his knowledge, information and belief.

"That George Delgado is at the present time a member of the City of Glendale Police Department and has been a permanent member of the Glendale Police Department for the past several years and has carried out his various duties to the best of his ability to the present date.

"That on or about the 1st day of January, 1922, defendant was advised by Officer C. N. Anthony of the Glendale Police Department that a man named Williams of the Glendale Fire Department, a special police officer of Glendale, that he had been arrested by Officer Soper (a minor) for violating section 146 of the Motor Vehicle Act of California, (a felony) and that said Soper to appear before the Glendale Police Department court on the following day, at 10 a. m.

"That on said following day in said court on the following day, at 10 a. m.

called for hearing. Officers Anthony Williams, the arresting officers, were not present. The hearing was held at 10 a.m. That defendant then ordered affiant to appear at the hearing. Defendant stated that he had no personal knowledge of the case and the particulars. Defendant then told affiant to testify, and he refused to affiant what to say.

That defendant affiant would not testify in said case.

That therefore affiant may a hearing be held at the county court house, in said case at which time said council will inquire into the truth of the foregoing charges.

and pleaded that he had a good reason for not coming to work, but that he had worked down at Robinson Bros. garage at Colorado and Brand. He said he had been sitting at the corner of Brand and Broadway at the Police Office and this special Officer, William, had come up to him and said, "Carry me down to Colorado Boulevard and make a little investigation. I'll be waiting for you." He said, "I got off at the corner. I went inside and found out I wanted to get, and when I came out I had played a trick on you." He said he was to walk on back. I started up the corner and then just then they came along and then just then they came along and then just then they came and made an arrest. I said, "You didn't," he says, "a little kid, a minor, come along and then just then they sideswiped a car on Brand boulevard and was coming towards Central avenue. The Mayor, you mean, an ante- car?"

They cited him to appear in court." I said, "I know. I wasn't there. They carried me to the station. I understand they set the case for the following morning. So the following morning I was in court that day, and I had some arrests myself, and was up there. I noticed when the paper the man was arrested in, of Samuel Soper—I noticed when his case was on, an arresting officer, an arrested officer, I present him. A. On the day of this accident, I happened to be with Officer Anthony down at the corner when Detective Sergeant Delgado came up and wanted to be taken to Robinson's storage. I took him down there. We were sitting on the car, and he got out and this truck came along and hit the Allen touring car and sent it into a truck. He was going north on Broadway. He was going across Brand and Colburn and this young fellow driving the truck about 25 years old, he caught the right rear corner of this touring car and sliced the wheel and tread off and started up and down, started spinning away, and ran west on Harvard. STORY OF NORTH IS WELL, PICTURIZED ON NOTED BOOK

One of the most spectacular flashes in "Flower of the North," which will be shown at Glendale Theatre for the last time tonight, shows a lighted signal fire, which Pauline Starke, as Jeanne, kindles to start a tribe of Indians on the warpath.

This fire was kindled on the highest peak of a range of mountains of northern Oregon at midnight, and its flames shot hundreds of feet in the air and were visible for many miles. The flame resembled a huge giant beckoning from the mountain top. Several cameras were placed to catch the spectacular blaze from various angles so as to record it in all its spectacular beauty. The results far exceeded the expectations of David Smith, who has a reputation of securing some of the most unusual effects known to motion pictures.

Based on Noted Novel
"Flower of the North" is based upon James Oliver Curwood's famous novel by the same name. It deals with the land "north of 53" in the summer time. It is replete with thrills, adventure and a strong love interest. Plenty of comedy is provided in the other part of the program, making it a most desirable show to see.

House to Pass Bonus Bill March 20, Plan

By A. O. HAYWARD
Written for International News Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—The soldier bonus bill will be passed by the house Monday, March 20, unless plans completed by house republican leaders today are changed.

Under set rules of the house the bill can be called up on that date and by a two-thirds vote sent along to passage without opportunity being offered for change, and on a direct vote on the bill itself. It is confidently believed that the bill will get far more than the required two-thirds of all votes cast.

The rules of the house on that day will limit discussion of the bill to twenty minutes, but because of the general interest in the legislation, an arrangement will be made whereby longer time for discussion will be allowed.

This course has been decided upon tentatively by the house republican leaders to choke off a threatened move on the part of the advocates of a sales tax to hang to the bonus bill a provision carrying these two taxes. Few of the house leaders favor a sales tax, and no republican leader will stand for an excess profits tax.

The army appropriation bill will be brought out next Monday. A sharp fight between advocates of the army as it now stands and those demanding a smaller army is in prospect. It will take nearly all of the next week to dispose of this legislation.

Democratic members of the ways and means committee will meet with the republican members who framed the bonus bill next Saturday to consider the bill. It is expected that some of the democrats, possibly all of them, may vote to report the bill favorably from committee. It is certain that a number of democrats will vote in the house for passage of the measure as framed.

Board of Chiropractic Examiners Proposed

The bureau of vital statistics of the Chiropractic Association of California has announced that during the year ending February 28, 1922, 109 arrests of chiropractors for violation of the medical practice act have been made by special agents of the Medical Board of California.

These arrests, according to this report, were based upon the inability of the State Board of Medical Examiners of California to grant certificates to chiropractors because of the present medical law which does not define chiropractic or its practice.

To correct the conflict between the medical doctors and chiropractors, the report points out that an initiative measure has qualified for the ballot at the election in November. This measure, if passed by the people, will create a self-sustaining board of chiropractic examiners which will examine and test the competency of every chiropractor in the state and those who may enter thereafter.

The report further shows that twenty-two states have legalized chiropractic and granted separate examining boards. Nine other states, two territories and three foreign countries have recognized chiropractic in part.

FREIGHT RATE REDUCTIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—The most important series of freight rate reductions since last October will be put into effect as soon as concurrence is obtained from lines east of Chicago and the Mississippi river by transcontinental carriers, it was announced by the Southern Pacific Company here. The rate cuts will range as high as fifty per cent and apply on both east and west freight traffic, and on both import and export commodities as well as domestic.

Eggs, aluminum articles, coke and charcoal, tin cans, glass bottles, electrical supplies, iron barrels, copper wire, auto wheels, rubber boots and shoes are among the commodities affected.

OIL FIELDS THROWN OPEN

WASHINGTON, March 10.—At the request of the American state department, the Philippine legislature has repealed portions of existing laws which prohibited foreigners from exploiting the oil resources of the islands, according to a cablegram from Governor General Leonard Wood. The government took this action because it has been embarrassed in its contention for the "open door" in the Mesopotamian and Djambi fields by the fact that foreigners were prohibited from oil development in American territory.

PACKERS ASK EXTENSION

WASHINGTON, March 10.—A petition for an extension of one year in which to give individual holders of stocks in meat packing concerns an opportunity to dispose of their holdings was asked in the Supreme Court by general counsel for Morris and Company.

The petitioners declared they have disposed of their plants at New Orleans, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and elsewhere, in accordance with the decree of the court, and that they have also sold their grocery branches for $3,000,000, suffering loss thereby of $1,025,000.

BATTALION OF DEATH LEADER WILL BE SPEAKER HERE

Colonel Dan Morgan Smith to Give Address on Sunday at Methodist Church

Col. Dan Morgan Smith, major of the "Battalion of Death," First Battalion, Three Hundred Fifty-eighth Infantry, Ninetieth division, A. E. F., will speak at the First Methodist church Sunday, March 12, at 7:30 o'clock on the experience of his men in taking Hill No. 350-4 Les Quatre Chemins, Les Huit Chemins.

This is the battalion whose operations electrified America, when cablegrams telling of its desperate fight with three German regiments were published by the leading papers of America.

Colonel Smith, who has been speaking to crowded houses all over the United States, was born in Virginia, reared in Florida, practiced law in Savannah, Ga., entered the Spanish-American war, practiced law and served as assistant corporation counsel of the city of Chicago, Ill. When the world's war enlisted money and men, he entered the A. E. F. as major, led his troops in the fiercest fighting, was wounded several times and was promoted to lieutenant on the field.

Gives Vivid Picture

Requests have come from every state in which he has spoken. The press comment is unanimous in stating that Colonel Smith gives remarkably vivid pictures of life on the battle field and in the trenches. His tributes to the heroic work of his officers and men in battle crises are no less eloquent. Favorable comment has been made on his appeal for better Americanism, which is needed just at this time to arouse people to the danger of lax law enforcement and social unrest.

Colonel Smith is touring California under the auspices of the State Anti-Saloon league. Admission will be free.

Automobile Tire Co. to Increase Service

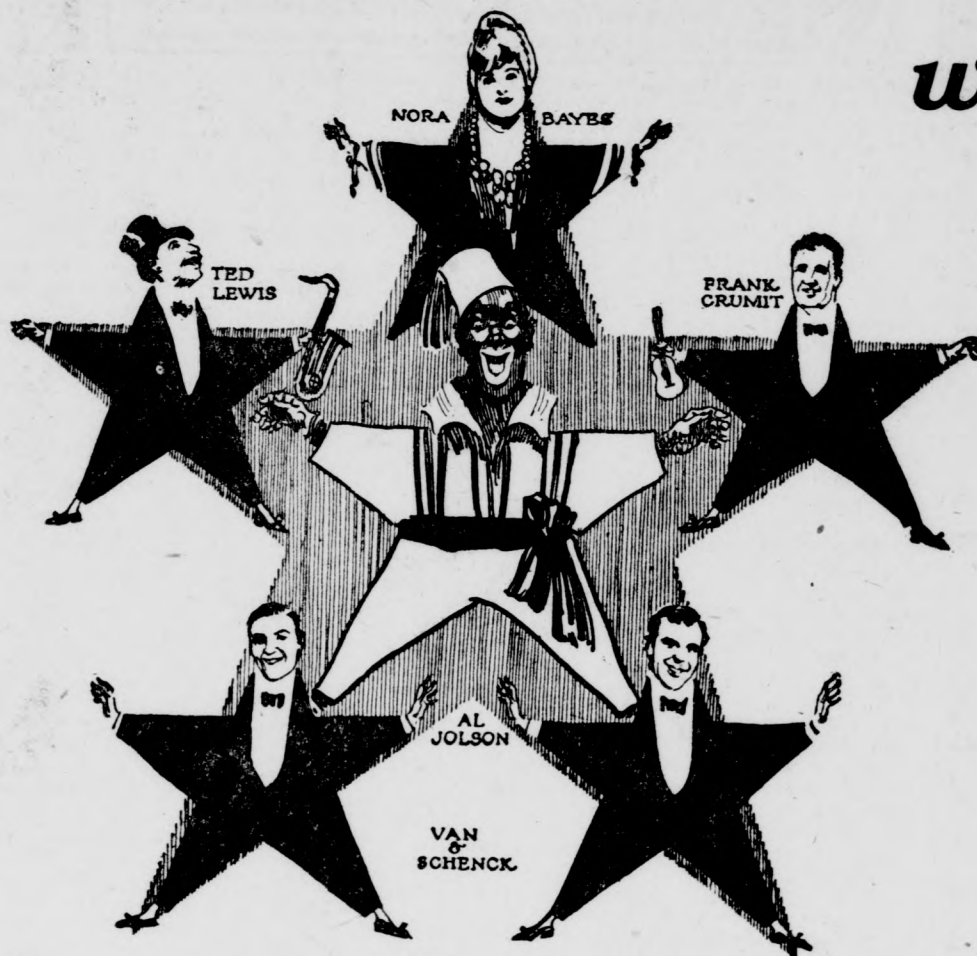

Due to steadily increasing demand for tires of quality, the Automobile Tire company at 211 South Brand boulevard is installing a Weaver tire changing machine to enable their maintaining an efficient free service which is extended to patrons.

By the use of this machine an old tire can be taken off of the rim and new one fitted in about one-fourth time it would take to do it by the use of ordinary tire irons. Such speedy service surely should be appreciated.

Construction Started on Fixture Factory

Construction work is well under way on the new Pacific Cabinet and Fixture Company of 819 Milford street, near San Fernando road. They expect to be producing store and office furnishings within the next thirty days, and it is understood that their plant will be much greater than contemplated at first.

Proposals Sought on Mail Carrying Job

Sealed proposals will be received April 4, 1922, on two different propositions to carry mail between the Glendale postoffice and offices at La Canada, Montrose, La Crescenta, Tujunga and Sunland, a distance of 13 miles and back. One proposition consists of making six trips a week and the other 12 trips a week, or two a day.

According to local postal officials this is a good little pickup for someone who has a machine and wishes an hour's work morning and evening. No deliveries will be made by this carrier.

FACES CHARGE OF MURDER

DELAND, Fla., March 10.—Acting on information which the authorities were furnished by the Ku Klux Klan, Mrs. Alice Shields was arrested at St. Cloud, on a warrant charging her with the murder of her husband, William Shields, 60, who was supposedly shot from ambush near here on the night of February 6. Peter Smith, a negro, has been held in jail here as a suspect since the killing, and the woman, in statements to officials, charges the negro with the actual killing.

TOKYO, March 10.—Two delegations from the Japanese foreign office—one made up of experts on railroad matters and the other on Shantung negotiations—headed by M. Hanihara, vice foreign minister, will depart within a week for China to negotiate the details of the return of Shantung to China.

AGREEMENT SUPERSEDED

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—President Harding has informed the United States senate that the Lansing-Ishii agreement of 1917, in which the United States recognized the "special interests" of Japan in China, has been entirely superseded by the treaties affecting China written during the arms conference here.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Mar. 19.—
Mrs. Ellen Duane Davis, great granddaughter of Benjamin Franklin, has announced her candidacy for the Democratic nomination for congress as representative of the "second Pennsylvania district" now held by George S. Graham.

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 10.—Seventeen years ago, almost to a month, a certain manager stood at the gate of the Augusta baseball park and informed a ball player that his ridiculous services were no longer required.

"Be gone," he hissed through a nasty pair of upper incisors. "Do not darken my outfield again."
That was back in 1905, the mid-victorian period of baseball. In the ensuing interval the identity of the certain manager has become very uncertain, but that of the ball player grew apace until today he stands not only as one of the greatest outfielders of all time, but a major league manager of some eminence.
He is called Ty Cobb by those who know him and by those who do not and he has darkened many an outfield in his time. Indeed, at this very moment he can go out and darken at he wants over the same Augusta ball field from which he was banished, for he has returned to the scene of his first trial and first failure as the excessive ballplayer manager of the Detroit Tigers.

He is now Mr. Cobb, the gentleman who has given his native state more publicity than General Sherman's march, where once he was "hey,
you," the sap.

Just how he managed to achieve that latter distinction is not a matter of record for he smote a home run beyond the right field fence on his first appearance at the plate and later in the same game strung along with a double.

But the certain manager must have been what is known as a tough audience. He let Cobb play one more game then ensued the hissing episode related above.

Ty was never one to stay put, how-

What the University of Pennsylvania annual relay carnival is to the east, the University of Washington has hopes of making its annual relay event for the west. Announcement has just been made that this year's event will be staged on April 29, which means that the eastern and western relays will be run off at the same time. The University of Pennsylvania will run its preliminaries off on April 28, reserving the next day for the finals.

The western meet will embrace three classes of competition. The larger universities will go to make up the first class. In the second class will be the smaller colleges, and the third class will embrace the high schools and freshmen of the colleges.
Invitations to the University of Washington meet will be sent out in the near future.

There seems to be no reason why the hopes of the Washingtonians of making their relay carnival a blue ribbon event should not materialize.
The eastern carnival involves a lot of time, much traveling and considerable expense for the far western and western teams to attend. The new Washington stadium offers a site for the relays which cannot be bettered anywhere on the coast.

At the moment, a track for the event is being built and it should be in perfect condition by the time the events are to be run off. Granted that this track is kept up to condition always, everything seems to be at hand to contribute to the success

Just how the rumors started that Coach Ben Wallis intended to alter the stroke of the University of California eight-oared crew no one seems to know. The rumor is just one of those mysterious whisperings that start from no one knows where.
There is positively no foundation for such a rumor. Wallis has been working on the present stroke at California ever since he started teaching the boys at Berkeley. That his methods and stroke have been successful is plainly evidenced by the fact that he brought California up from an "also ran" entry some years ago to the Pacific coast champion eight last year and good enough to row into second place last year in the National Intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie.

Probably what started the rumors was the announcement by Wallis that he "was worried about his stroke," meaning, of course, the finding a man who could take the place of that greatest stroke oarsman who has ever rowed for the California crew, Larson. And that question is still bothering Coach Wallis. At the present time he is using Jacobus, a varsity man of over years, but he is seriously thinking next week of placing Mc-Millan in the stroke slide. At the present time the California crew is ragged in its stroke, lacks smoothness and a decided inclination to fall on their "pull through." These, of course, are faults that can be straightened out, but until Wallis finally decides on his stroke man it is hardly likely that the results de-ever, he talked his way back into the Augusta batting order some weeks later and did so well that he was purchased by the Tigers late in the same season. He was a riot from the outset, thereby proving the certain manager a great hisser, but a rather indifferent judge of baseball flesh.

Cobb is down here with a very likely outfit on his hands. He needs only to develop a shortstop to replace Donnie Bush, who collapsed last year and a pitcher or so to work with Elmke and Leonard; then everything will be sweet. The shortstop possibly has been found in the person of Fred Haney, up for trial from the Omaha club of the Western league. Haney's appearance and mannerism reminds one forcibly of Bush. Just how far he may carry the resemblance is another matter.
He plays ground balls well, gets the ball away from him rapidly and altogether handles himself after the manner of a first class infielder.
Haney stands out as the best prospect in the camp.

Other recruit outfielders hanging about for a crumb from the rich man's table are Emery Rigney, Herman Murriet, who was given a trial last year; Dan Clark from Wichita Falls; Fred Barnes and one Mann, the last two being youths of uncertain lineage. Rigney is the most promising of this crowd, but the individual most likely to be retained is George Cutshaw, the veteran obtained from Pittsburgh, who is a handy pinch hitter for any man's ball club.

The pitcher needed may be Sylvester Johnson, right hander, obtained from Portland for $40,000 and five ball players, or it may be Bart Cole, the left-hander who won seven straight for the Tigers in 1921.

At this time last year the United States Lawn Tennis association had announced that challenges had been received from approximately a dozen nations for competition for the Davis cup. This fact in 1922, the only announcement that has been made is that of the challenge by the British Isles.

Such a marked contrast naturally is setting followers of tennis to talking. Many are of the opinion that it does not in any way auger less interest in the series. It is pointed out that a number of nations which competed last year may be satisfied they have no chance to win. These, of course, would cut no figure.

It is almost a certainty that both Japan and Australia again will be on the lists and these two nations alone, with the United States, would make for all the competition necessary to keep up both the high standard of play as well as the interest in this international blue ribbon tennis event.
It simply would mean that there would be less preliminary elimination tournaments to run off, which is in no wise affect anything.

Johnston, the California expert and former National singles champion, at this writing is suffering from a serious attack of the influenza. There has been considerable question as to whether or not he would again represent the United States. His present illness adds to this uncertainty for the reason that the ailment is known to require a considerable time for a complete regaining of strength.

WOMAN PHYSICIAN, OUT OF MEXICO, VISITOR HERE

Dr. Lydia E. Parmelee, Now at Glendale Sanitarium, Tells of Conditions South

Dr. Lydia E. Parmelee, who is this winter one of the attending physicians at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, came almost directly here from the City of Mexico, where she and her husband spent the past year. She did not enter upon regular medical practice while there, although President Obregon opened the way for American physicians to obtain license, without taking medical examinations, but with one restriction, which was a required residence of three years in the republic. One of Dr. Parmelee's enthusiastic Mexican acquaintances urged her to practice, as it would be a simple matter to state that she had been there three years, and no one would be the wiser. But she viewed matters from a different light. Her husband, Dr. R. W. Parmelee, is general superintendent of missionary work under the direction of the Seventh-day Adventist church, in Mexico, and three republics in Central America, namely, Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras. They have worked under a great disadvantage in Mexico for the past ten years, owing to the continued revolution, but for the past year have made splendid headway.

Now More Encouraging

Conditions have been more encouraging in Central America, but mode of travel has been one great difficulty. A railroad has now been completed from the east coast to San Pedro and an automobile road is under way to be completed before the end of the year, it is expected. At present the journey from San Pedro to Siguatepeque and from there to Tegucigalpa is made on mule back, taking a period of eight days on an average. This denomination has a thriving school at Siguatepeque. Dr. R. W. Parmelee is expected to arrive in Los Angeles in April and will remain over the general conference of the Adventist church at San Francisco, to be held May 11 to 31. He is planning, according to a letter received by his wife Thursday morning, to send a little girl patient all the way from Honduras to Glendale Sanitarium to take treatment for spinal affection, where she will be under the care of Dr. Lydia Parmelee.

Central Building's Second Floor Offices Being Completed

The second floor of the Central building at 107 East Broadway is now being divided by Contractor G. W. Calkins of 1321 Valley View Road into modern offices. The hall, which was occupied until recently by the I. O. O. F., is being divided into quarters, each of which will become an office. The space to the east of the lodge room, which had never been completed, is now to be finished and plastered. The main corridor of the building will be extended to the east and a cross corridor will provide access to the six offices on the east side of the building. There will be 24 offices altogether in the rearranged building and many of them will have private reception rooms.

Among the new tenants of the building will be Atty. J. F. McBryde of 103-A North Brand boulevard, City Attorney Bert Woodard and the architectural firm of Charlton & Brainard, now at 113 East Broadway.

Whitney-Clough Co. Opens Realty Office at 108 W. Colorado

J. L. Whitney, who has been a real estate and oil man in southern California for more than a generation, has associated his brother, F. D. Whitney of Denver, Colo., and H. E. Clough, formerly of Oshkosh, Wis., in the realty business here at 108 West Colorado boulevard under the banner of the Whitney-Clough Realty company. The latter has been in California for two years and knows values, besides being a booster for Glendale. He has been instrumental in locating five families here.

As time progresses it is the intention of the firm to deal in oil and mining investments, as well as real estate, having had a great deal of experience along these lines.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results From
An Excess of Hydrochloric
Acid

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing and, furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.—Advertisement.

Vacations to Be Cheaper
Job for Community Service
Even Postmaster Quits!
Talking About Hero Dogs

By Gil A. Cowan

VACATIONS are going to be cheaper this year, according to coast dispatches.

Sure, and they will have to be if the most of us get one.

It is announced that the rail lines operating in California are going to restore their summer rates on April 28, which were in effect prior to the last 20 per cent increase.

Well do I remember how a whole Sunday's cruise over the San Joaquin valley cost me about $5 in "the good old days before the war."

This will be pleasing news for Southern California as it will bring many tourists from interior counties and Arizona and New Mexico here for their play time.

Glendale needs a secretary to handle state societies.

Possibly this will come under Community Service activities.

For instance, the Minneapolis folks want to get together.

Any local person who wants to aid in staging this event will please notify James Everington, Sr., at Glendale 1235-W this evening.

Too much credit cannot be given those leaders who devote their time and energy to making the tourists better satisfied and feel that almost everybody is their friend in Southern California.

If you don't believe it attend one of those state picnics.

Here are two human interest items coming over the International News Service leased wire that are comments in their action alone.

In resigning as postmaster at Coram, Freeman B. Cullom recommended to the postoffice department that the office be abolished as he and a watchman are the only persons receiving mail there and Cullom wants to leave. Coram was once an incorporated city when the Balaklava smelter was running.

"Champ," famous dog here of the world war, and C. C. Franklin, his master, were received by Governor W. D. Stephens at Sacramento yesterday.

The Australian collie and the master whose life he saved on the battlefields of France are on a 12,000-mile tour around America.

"Champ" wore the croix de guerre with which he was decorated by Marshal Foch for his services as a life-saver when he met the governor.

A rather unusual situation was noted in the theatre attractions of Glendale last night.

Big scenes in both of the stellar attractions hinged around war hero dogs, or was it the same dog.

But it is the addition of little bits of human interest atmosphere such as closeups of wild animals, a rabbit with a litter of little ones or a dog in an unusual yet characteristic pose, that gives realism to the production that the average spectator is unable to explain.

It was a fact that people came away from theatres last night talking about the dog—not the actors.

J. G. Bennett in the National Republican of current issue says just what most of us think—"America First," and here is how he says it.

In commenting upon the flood of foreign propaganda during the conference for limitation of armaments a prominent American editor made the observation that it was but the beginning of an era in which the people of the United States would be subject to a continual campaign upon the part of European interests to use the United States and its resources to further the selfish aims of rival camps in the European continent and the Far East. His prediction is being fulfilled. There never has been in the history of the United States, such a campaign of proselytizing by foreign lecturers, foreign writers, foreign officials and foreign language newspapers as is now being waged.

The American people are being told unless they consent to Europe's repudiating $11,000,000,000 of money borrowed from us in good faith that Europe will be ruined.

They are being told unless the United States makes additional loans imbrogllos, that Europe will be ruined.

They are being told that unless we consent to lowering our tariff duties and to the admission of a flood of cheaply made manufactured products from Europe, that Europe will be ruined.

They are being told that unless we go back to the days of unrestricted immigration and permit hundreds of thousands of all classes of people to flood this country that Europe will be ruined.

They are being told that unless the United States consents to become a party to European economic alliances that Europe will be ruined.

They are being told that unless the United States agrees to enter into some sort of a league of nations and participate in all the European embroglios, that Europe will be ruined.

It is futile to urge that this foreign propaganda be stopped. That can not be and will not be. But the growth of it and insistence of it should arouse all Americans to the necessity of looking after American interests first and remaining free of all foreign entanglements. There never has been a time in the history of the United States when there was greater need for the preaching and practice of 100 per cent Americanism, the setting and keeping our own house in order, the protection of our own industries and laboring classes, the sane conduct of our own finances, the protection of our own markets and the safeguarding of our institutions than at present.

The very fact that this country is being made the object of so virulent and vehement propaganda by so many and so antagonistic European interests should convince the people of this country that it is necessary for the perpetuity of this republic to remain as free as possible from European quarrels and intrigues.

This is not, in the ultimate, a selfish viewpoint. Quite the contrary. America can never help Europe by becoming a partisan in European quarrels, or by becoming identified with European or economic alliances. America's ability to help Europe, or any other stricken section of the globe, in event there is real need for outside help, depends upon America's retaining the virility of her citizenship and institutions, the integrity of her nationalism and the control of her own markets and resources.

JUDGES DIFFER ON LAWS RESTRICTING DIVORCE CASES

Opposite Views Are Offered
As to Best Method for Meeting of Problem

Written for International News Service
NEW YORK—Diametrically opposite views as to the best way of remedying or solving the "problem of the age"—marriage—are held by two modern Solomons of the New York bench.

Judge Alfred J. Tully of the Court of General Sessions, holds that more stringent marriage laws will result in fewer divorces. Senior Justice Leopold Prince, of the Eighth District Municipal court, in answer to Judge Tully, holds that stricter marriage laws would result in a deluge of divorces, and that easier divorce laws would result in a far happier condition of life and living.

"Did taxation without fermentation make for a prohibition that prohibited?" asked Justice Prince.

"Make Man Jump Over"

"Barriers of any kind only want to make man jump over them," he explained. "Make marriage laws stricter and you will have a similar effect to that produced by prohibition. Everyone knows that there have been more hip-bottles and more drinking, even among young people, than ever before.

"People want to be free to do as they choose. Legislative restraint imposed upon them that deprives them of their rights makes them want all the more to do a thing they are told that they cannot.

"Before a woman and a man are married both wear their best clothes, as it were. Both are on their best behavior. Neither shows his or her real self to the other. They cannot foresee what the other may turn out to be like after married life. And just as they themselves cannot foresee, neither can any law. For that reason, therefore, I cannot see how stricter marriage laws would accomplish anything.

"Laughs at Locksmiths"

"Love laughs at locksmiths," and it certainly will laugh at laws, a couple have made up their minds to be married they will accomplish their marriage somehow.

"There have always been runaway marriages, and there always will be. Often they turn out to be happier marriages than those where the two have kept company for years before marrying.

"What I advocate, then, is not stricter marriage laws, but easier divorce laws. In the beginning of civilization, in the days of Moses, a man could divorce his wife on the grounds of incompatibility. In those days, of course, a woman was a mere chattel, and the law of Moses should work both ways. Either a man or a woman should be allowed to divorce the other on the grounds of incompatibility.

"Divorce Laws Good"

"I am convinced that the divorce laws of Nevada are good. There, after six months' separation, a divorce can be obtained on the grounds of desertion or non-support or incompatibility.

"Unfortunately, the divorce laws in Reno benefit the rich and not the poor. The poor suffer here, just as they suffer with prohibition. The rich man has his cellar stocked, but the poor man cannot buy even a couple glasses of beer a week.

"The rich can go to Reno and stay at an expensive hotel for six months, but no poor person can afford to go there to obtain a divorce.

"I am in favor of a uniform divorce law that will bring about divorce on the simple grounds of incompatibility, if for no other reason than for the sake of the children. How can any children grow up to live useful, happy lives when their parents are continually fighting at home?"

MIXED COURTS PROPOSED

PARIS, March 10.—The French experts who have just completed their report on France's program at the Genoa conference suggest the creation of mixed courts composed of Russians and non-Russians to protect foreign interests in Soviet Russia, according to The Matin. It is proposed, however, that there shall be no interference with Russia's domestic legislation.

The French experts hold that it is not necessary to change completely the economic and social system in Russia before trade is revived, the Matin revealed. A system of leases to repay the original land owners in Russia (whose properties were seized), was deemed advisable by the experts.

The population of the British empire exceeds one-quarter of the world's population.

U. S. SERVICE CROSS IS BESTOWED UPON GLENDALE MAN

In front of him. Captain Chenoweth realized at once that he was in the midst of a shell explosion. In another second a shell exploded behind him as "though it had been in his hip pocket. He was hurled into the air by the concussion and felt that, if he had had a hook, he could have grabbed the moon.

Although severely wounded, Captain Chenoweth was still conscious. By a mighty effort he was able to concentrate all of his strength for a dash half way back to his command, where he was able to summon assistance. Before losing consciousness, Captain Chenoweth was able to inform his first lieutenant the proper action to take.

Being Used as Wedge.
The Ninety-first Division at that time was being used as a wedge in an attempt to break through the German lines. From an initial deployment of two kilometers, or about a mile and a half, the division had spread over a line of eight kilometers, or five miles. Captain Chenoweth's company was able to prevent a flank attack which might have been extremely disastrous to the A. E. F.

For his presence of mind and bravery in action, Captain Chenoweth today is the owner of a Distinguished Service Cross, which is the highest award paid by Uncle Sam for valor in battle. Although quite proud of this official recognition of his service, he is extremely modest and speaking of his exploits in the service humorously, as though they were every day occurrences.

Occupant of Hospital.
So severely was Captain Chenoweth wounded on this occasion that he remained for three days in the temporary field hospital with shells passing overhead, and one of them ripping off a portion of the tent, before it was thought worth while to take up the valuable space in an ambulance to take him to the base hospital.

Between September 29, 1918, and February 17, 1922, Captain Chenoweth has been in army hospitals almost continuously. With over thirty wounds and other complications, he provided a ready subject for clinics.

"Whenever there wasn't anything else to do, they put me on the operating table," remarked Captain Chenoweth, with a reminiscent laugh.

Although walking stiffly on account of eight bullet wounds in his left leg and bearing scars on his neck and many other places, Captain Chenoweth is particularly alert and vigorous.

After being discharged from an army hospital at San Jose, Captain Chenoweth decided to gratify a desire of some standing to make his home in Southern California. A short time ago he came to Glendale, accompanied by his wife and their two small children, Charlene and Henry Breckenridge, and Mrs. Chenoweth's father, George L. Betts.

A call was paid at once upon Fred Madden, "the bungalow specialist," at 200 West Broadway, who, without losing any delay, showed the family their new home by lantern light.

Captain Chenoweth is now spending his time trimming the massive growth of ivy banking the entire front of the new residence, and in fixing up the premises before beginning active work as district distributor for the Duplex Water Percolator.

VARIETY BILL FOR T. D. & L. PATRONS WILL INTEREST

Feature Vaudeville And Noted Actress in Strong Film On Tonight's Program

Meiklejohn-Dunn's Road Show vaudeville will again hold down the boards at the T. D. & L. theatre today and tomorrow. This week's variety program is composed of comedy, singing and dancing and instrumental acts of a high degree headlined by the well-known and famous trio of singing wizards, Cook, Furney & Mack.

The feature offering on the bill is the eminent actress, Pola Negri, in Paramount's latest picture, "The Last Payment," conceded to be an altogether wonderful picture.

Special Added Feature
The second episode of "With Stanley in Africa" will be given Saturday afternoon only—as a special added attraction for the boys and girls of Glendale who have requested of Manager Allan that he "book" "Specially for them" a chapter-play of adventure, which they so thoroughly enjoy. The show all through is good.

Central Ave. P. T. A. to Hold Card Party

Mrs. Gladys Case, of Los Angeles, was the speaker at the regular meeting of the Central Avenue Parent-Teacher Association, of which Mrs. C. H. Crawford is president, and which was held at the school yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Crawford announced a card party to be given March 24 at the home of Mrs. Reed Henstis, at Brand boulevard and Arden avenue, to raise money for the philanthropic fund.

Mrs. John Robert White, president of the Glendale P. T. A. federation, was present and announced that Mrs. Higgins, national P. T. A. president, will be in Glendale April 4 and will be entertained with a luncheon at the Methodist church. Mrs. H. V. Henry sang "Mother," which was written by Mrs. Higgins, and "The Minuet" (Mary H. Dodge), and was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. H. Andree.

Mrs. Case, of Los Angeles, gave a very delightful talk on "Books for Children," and also gave a list of some of the best books for girls and boys. The mothers of the fourth grade are planning to furnish food for a cafeteria luncheon to be served at the school next Tuesday. The fifth grade, of which Miss Perkins is teacher, was awarded the prize picture for this month, having had the largest number of mothers present. After the business meeting tea and wafers were served and a social half-hour enjoyed.

INCREASE IN PROSPERITY

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—A marked increase in prosperity in the next few months was predicted by Secretary of Labor Davis.

"The fact that employment has increased during the past month is the most healthy assurance that the tide of industrial depression has turned," the labor secretary said.

"A gratifying feature of the situation is that the increases in employment are most noticeable in some of the basic industries—iron and steel and their products, lumber and lumber manufactures, automobiles and so forth," he added.

BUDGET BUREAU FOLLOWED

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—The senate has adopted a resolution giving the appropriations committee authority over all appropriations as recommended by the budget bureau. The vote was 63 to 14. Heretofore, authority to frame appropriation bills have been vested in a number of separate committees.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—With only four months left of the fiscal year 1922, the government is behind in revenues $760,000,000 as compared with the same period last year. The treasury's record of the eight months from July 1 to March 1 showed total treasury receipts from internal revenue, customs dues and miscellaneous taxes, amounted to $2,693,000,000 as against $2,457,000,000 for the same months last year. The last revenue collections from all sources have been close to $80,000,000 a month, below the same month a year ago.

MRS. A. P. TORREY IS HONORED AT CLASS SOCIAL MEETING

Sisterhood Members In Session at Methodist Church and Surprise Their Teacher

With fifty-two members and several guests present Thursday afternoon, the Sisterhood class of the First Methodist church held one of the pleasantest meetings of the year in the parlors of the church. At a short business session with the president, Mrs. Mark Russell, in the chair, reports were made from the committees regarding new members and those absent or ill.

The day was in close proximity to the birthday of Mrs. A. P. Torrey, who has been the class teacher for two years, and at the close of the business session she was presented with a handsome Boston bag, as a gift from the class. Mrs. Torrey's surprise was so complete that she was quite overcome for the moment. The verses accompanying the gift were written by Mrs. Mark Russell, the class poetess.

Musical Guessing Game
The afternoon was spent with a very entertaining musical guessing game, which was also a memory test. This degree, a G. C., was conferred upon Mrs. B. F. Geiger, who guessed correctly the entire fifty questions. A social hour followed with refreshments of pumpkin pie, with whipped cream and coffee served by the hostesses.

The hostesses for this meeting were all former residents of Michigan and included Mrs. Anna Glendening, chairman, who planned the entertainment; Mrs. J. D. Kretschmer, Mrs. B. F. Geiger, Mrs. E. P. Simmonds, Mrs. W. H. Fitzer, Mrs. Switzer, Mrs. A. P. Torrey, Mrs. Widulich of LaFayette, Ind., who is the house guest of Mrs. M. Nuesbaum of 634 North Kenwood street, was a special guest.

Here Are Verses
The verses written by Mrs. Russell follow:

Mrs. Torrey:
We have to obtain information
That you have reached another station

In your journey through this trackless world below,
So we bring congratulation
With sincere appreciation
Of the good which on your sisters you bestow.

Will you take this bag of treasure,
Deep affection without measure,
Will you place the contents in your loving heart?

Then the bag you'll find is fitting,
And a help, although unwitting,
Always ready in your plans to play its part.

Here are greetings, true and hearty,
And we hope you'll like this party.
And accept this simple token of our love,

May our Father bless and guide you,
Care for you, whate'er betide you,
Bring us all at last to His great school above.

With Love of the Sisterhood Class.

Concrete Ship to Be Converted Into Pier

WASHINGTON—At least one good use has been found for the famous concrete vessels developed during the war and which have disappeared from public notice since.

The concrete tank steamer Selma, badly damaged in Mexican waters some time ago, may become a pleasure palace, it was learned from the shipping board today. It is intended to beach the huge hulk on Pelican Island, Galveston, Tex., where she will be out of the way of navigation. After this is done there is a proposal from Galveston to convert the hulk into a pleasure pier. Picnic parties and anglers are expected to make it a favorite resort.

This plan was adopted after other projects seemed to be impracticable. It was too badly damaged to make it serviceable again and too costly to break up.

factor in the selection of the next Democratic candidate for the presidency, if his health continues to improve during the next year as it has in the past twelve months. The former president is much improved in health.

Romantic Diamond Is Purchased by Chinese

LONDON.—The massive diamond, which once dazzled the eyes of admirers of Gaby Deslys, has passed into the hands of a wealthy Chinese, according to dispatches received here from Shanghai.

The famous stone, which weighs 102.63 carats and is over an inch in width, has a romantic history. Centuries old, the stone is said to have glimmered as the eye of an Egyptian goddess in an ancient temple and to have been a motive in some of the smaller wars of world history. More recently it has glittered in the turbans of court beauties.

Recently the jewel was taken from Paris to China, where it was shown to a select group, and eventually purchased for approximately $60,000.

chance. He says, "Wait a minute, I wish if you can get Anthony." He went in the office and Chief Martin said, "Get the witness over there," and he said, "You want Williams to get Anthony, get too?" He says, "No, never mind, you can take the stand." He says, "You know what it is, a Delgado told him no, he didn't know what it was. He says, 'I will tell you, you can go up and take the stand.' When he said that I closed the door, and walked on out, I went and got Officer Stein."

Mr. Stephenson: Do you want to cross-examine the witness?

Mr. Chief Martin: Yes, I want to cross-examine the witness.

Mr. Martin: That is what I did, yes, we came back, we talked it, we told him what had happened.

Q. You say Mr. Delgado knew something about the case, did he?

Mr. Delgado: I said I knew what they had told me.

Mr. Williams: We told him when we went down and picked him up what we had done.

Mr. Martin: You and Mr. Delgado are very good friends, are you not?

A. Well, we speak to one another.

Q. You ride around a good deal in the car, do you not?

A. Not lately, no.

Chief Martin: As I said before, I don't know anything about the case, and in fact I don't think I am so low, even though I am chief of police, that I would do anything like that. I have nothing further to say.

Mr. Davis: You were a special officer?

Mr. Williams: He is a fireman.

Chief Martin: The fire department.

The Witness: Regular on the fire department, special police officer.

Mr. Stephenson: I can't hear you, I want to hear.

A. He asked me if I was a police officer, and I said a special.

Mr. Davis: I asked what you were.

Q. I might be a special, but what is that?

Q. You ought to know, if you were.

Q. I mean, who do you work for?

A. Nobody.

Q. Nobody pays you; nobody works with you?

A. You know, you are one of them.

Mr. Stephenson: You have been sworn in as a special officer of the City of Glendale?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Are you connected with any police organization; that is, I mean, any private patrol?

A. No.

Q. You are the same as I am? I was sworn in as a police officer years ago.

A. That is all.

Q. In other words, to be more specific, were you a member of the Herbert's Patrol?

A. No sir.

Mr. Martin: May I make a suggestion that we read just the charges, not all of that?

Mr. Stephenson: Let us put the man on the stand and let him testify what his charges are.

The Mayor: Qua Balthazar, the witness stand.

Mr. Stephenson: The first few charges here seem to cover—

A. Those are statements and declarations in the first part. The 25th duty of December, 1921, you were appointed desk sergeant?

A. Yes sir.

Q. That you were later in the month appointed regular desk sergeant?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And "that during the time of your employment commencing the first day of December, 1921, until the 25th day of January, 1922, you carried out the duties of your position to the best of your knowledge and ability, working at all times for the betterment of the police department?"

A. Yes sir.

Q. "Suggesting and expediting the installation and adoption of such ideas and improvements feasible and necessary for the efficiency of the police department?"

A. Yes sir.

Q. Anything you want to say about that, chief? First, do you want to elaborate that any, Mr. Balthazar?

A. No, except that it follows out the regular form there.

Mr. Davis: No charge. Mr. Stephenson: But the statements and charges are connected.

Mr. Stephenson: All right. We will take them up as we go. "That you made out an accident report form?"

A. Yes sir.

Q. And "secured the passage of an ordinance requiring the filing of such reports with the police department?"

A. Yes sir.

Mr. Stephenson: That is true, chief?

Mr. Martin: No.

Mr. Stephenson: That you "posted bulletins for the aid and information of the officers in making out arrest sheets at the request of the police magistrate?"

A. Yes sir.

Mr. Stephenson: Is that true, chief?

Mr. Martin: Partly true, is that No. 1?

Mr. Stephenson: No, this is No. 2.

The Witness: I think that can be borne out by the fact that I have written letters to the city magistrate.

Mr. Stephenson: That you "suggested that passage of an ordinance giving the police power to assess fines and impose sentences for local violations of the Volstead Act, composing and writing the letter to the city magistrate?"

Mr. Stephenson: How about it, chief?

Chief Martin: I took that up with Captain Reeves, the City Manager, long before we got to the city.

The Witness: I wish to refer that to Mr. Reeves (addressing Captain Reeves). Did you or did you not receive a letter composed along those lines, signed by me, written by myself? You were familiar with the letter, and you were familiar with the question of whether or not these letters, which Mr. Martin was capable of composing these letters.

Mr. Reeves: I received such a letter. You later on stated to me that you had composed it as your own state.

The Witness: Yes sir.

Mr. Stephenson: That is all I know.

Mr. Stephenson: That you "copied that section of the code relative to jury duty exemption list contained therein?"

A. Yes sir.

Chief Martin: Is that right, chief?

Chief Martin: Yes, I will show you a copy of it, how long it took him to do it.

The Witness: It is not how long it took me to do it, whether I did it or not. Chief Martin: It would probably take you all that time to do it.

Other Matters at Issue

Mr. Stephenson: That you "wrote to the secretary of state asking for and receiving several hundred copies of the law relative to the sale of tobacco to minors?"

A. Yes sir.

Mr. Stephenson: That right, chief?

Chief Martin: The fact is I instructed Mr. Davis to do so. Mr. Davis of the school called my attention to the children smoking cigarettes. I looked up the law on the subject and I could do it. I sent the secretary of state and he sent me the cigarettes and where were they made, approximately when?

A. Well, I went to work the first day of December, 1921, and also they were made within the following week.

Q. Where?

A. In the office of the police desk sergeant.

Q. Is that all he ever said about Judge Lowe?

A. That is all I can remember distinctly at the present time.

Mr. Martin: All right, that I think Judge Lowe knows that I would not speak that way about him. I have always spoken of him as a gentleman. I am sitting there, or any gentleman that I have ever mentioned Judge Lowe to, I have spoken in the highest terms of him, and I think so now. I have never heard of anything else he has helped me and done everything he could to help me. I have never heard of anything else he has helped me and done everything he could to help me. I have never heard of anything else he has helped me and done everything he could to help me.

Mr. Stephenson: What do you know about this?

A. I have heard those remarks before Balthazar came until about two weeks ago.

Mr. Delgado: On numerous occasions I have heard him make the remark that, just to be brief, he wouldn't speak to him in any case, certain words, "Keep away from him." Now, I hate to see that fellow get this or that, you know, it seems like it was not just a few words, but it was a lot of words. I have heard him make those remarks. Mr. Stephenson: The question is, did you two gentlemen hear Chief Martin make the remark Mr. Balthazar said he made?

Mr. Delgado: That time, no sir, I was not present.

Mr. Martin: I did, yes sir. . . .

Mr. Martin: You say I said, "Keep away from him?"

Mr. Delgado: Yes.

Mr. Martin: I said it, I acknowledge it, to people coming or officers, I tell them to keep away from the judge because he won't listen to them. I don't want to hear that stuff, he can't do business with them. He is a judge; you can't do business with him.

Mr. Stephenson: Anything more to say on that, Mr. Balthazar?

Mr. Balthazar: Yes, that is all.

Councilmen Concerned

Mr. Stephenson: Now, then, the next charge is that the defendant had posted a bulletin asking that each member of the police department bring an article to beautify his office.

Mr. Balthazar: Yes sir.

Q. Tell us about that, if you want to.

Mr. Balthazar: I posted a bulletin asking that each member of the police department bring an article to beautify his office. I posted a bulletin asking that each member of the police department bring an article to beautify his office. I posted a bulletin asking that each member of the police department bring an article to beautify his office.

Mr. Stephenson: As I am a member of the city council, I suppose I am concerned, but I do not want to go into the matter, and whether the remarks were made or whether they were not makes no difference to me.

Mr. Martin: He made that statement; he can answer that.

Mr. Stephenson: You mean about beautifying the chief's office?

Mr. Balthazar: We will say, on about the 22nd or 23rd day of December, 1921, a bulletin was posted, signed by me, in the general composition of Sergeant Mann. It was posted on the 25th or 24th day of December, called me in his office and spoke relative to this bulletin, saying he had asked Sergeant Mann to post a bulletin that each member of the police department to bring some article to beautify his office, more than 50 cents in value and not less than 10 cents in value for the particular adornment of his private office.

The Mayor: That amount was put in, 10 cents?

A. The amount was not put in the bulletin, but I remember the chief stated that to me subsequently in his office.

Mr. Stephenson: Anything present when he said that?

A. I don't believe so. I think I was in his office alone at the time.

The Mayor: Have you any witnesses to that fact?

A. That the bulletin was posted?

Q. No, about the article, 10 cents up to 50?

A. I believe either Sergeant Herda or Sergeant Delgado might have heard it. I won't say I won't call them as witnesses unless they are willing to testify.

Another Bulletin

Mr. Delgado: No, I did not hear it, but Mr. Balthazar is a little bit mischievous as to what was in the bulletin itself. It specified very clearly that the sum would be up to 50 cents, and here is another one, in which a particular bearing on this particular case. I would like to have you gentlemen look it over.

The Mayor: We had better keep that until this case comes up.

Mr. Stephenson: I take it from what we have got before us, that this particular bulletin was composed by Mann?

Mr. Balthazar: It was composed by Mann, you understand, but it was unsigned.

Q. And the chief told you that he authorized Mann to do it?

BIBLE IS BEST PLAN ON WHICH TO GO, SAYS SPEAKER

Book Not Excelled by Any Other Method, Told to Presbyterian Class

"If you know of any man who has ever written a better plan or a blue print by which to build a life than the Bible, then in the name of all that is right and all that is true, tell us about it," demanded C. A. Gummere of Los Angeles, in a spirited address last night in the Sunday school room of the Presbyterian church, at the fellowship dinner of the Men's class.

"If there is anything in all the world, which is better, we want it. If there is anything better, I challenge you to bring it to me. There are no such books; there are no such blue prints.

"The only nations of the globe that will have any right to first rank are the ones which have most perfectly measured up to that standard which has been set by these blue prints. The world is clamoring for a nation which is big enough to be called Christian. The nations are demanding that we measure up to that standard."

Mr. Gummere inquired what the citizens of this country would get out of the sacrifice of war if the United States failed to assume its duty now as a Christian nation.

Now Is Time To Think.

"You men are not here to play; you are here to think. You have a right to think. If there ever were a day in all the world, when a man had a right to think, it is now.

"There are blue prints and specifications for every single life in this book and the only man, who builds his life right, is the man who takes time to study them. I find time to face every day with a man, who don't want to dig, and, if you dig at all, they only scratch the surface. What would Christ say? There is only one real foundation stone. There have got to be with solid granite—Jesus Christ.

"The blue print is different in each case. There is a plan and a blue print in that book for every single person and, if we don't find them, it is because we are not looking for them. We are going to pay the price. The wages of sin is death.

"The fellow, who doesn't believe in spreading the Kingdom of God to the ends of the earth, doesn't believe in extending it to his next door neighbor.

Must Convert Money, Too.

"Unless a man's money is converted, too, there is something wrong with his conversion."

Mr. Gummere was vigorously applauded by the 250 men present, and made an honorary member of the class.

"Some of us are beginning to see the fulfillment of our foundation hopes and aspirations," declared Rev. W. E. Edmonds, commenting on the fact that eleven years ago a group of eleven had stood in a corner of the same room and discussed the foolishness of building such a "large" church as the one which is now overcrowded each Sabbath.

"We ought to thank God and take courage," suggested Rev. Edmonds. "It isn't any longer the preacher who makes the people; it is the people who make the pastor. As men, we are fact to face with our duty."

"I hope this organization will stand loyally behind the work of the Y. M. C. A. in this town when we have such leadership as Rex Kelly, one of the deacons of our own church."

Dynamics Class Praised.

Members of the Dynamics class, who were guests of the occasion, were paid a high tribute by Rev. Edmonds, who declared that they were not afraid to stand up for God. He suggested for them a vigorous soul winning campaign. He proposed the organization of gospel teams to make frequent excursions into the surrounding country.

The Harmony Male Quartette of Tabor College, Los Angeles, furnished part of the musical program. Its members are Edward Hamm, H. S. Foth, P. E. Schellberg and H. C. Richert. They sang "Far Away

Impossible to Adjust Debts on the 25-Year Basis, Say Officials

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—Far in advance of the debt funding negotiations with foreign governments, officials of the United States expect that most of the debtors will find it impossible to adjust the debts on a twenty-five-year maturity basis, as provided in the funding law.

Great Britain and some of the other stronger nations now find themselves in a position to begin negotiations and make arrangements for the payment of interest, when the next interest payments fall due in October.

Some of the financially weaker countries, however, may ask that longer periods than twenty-five years be allowed them in which to liquidate their obligations.

The debt funding commission, when confronted with that situation, will appeal to congress for additional authority, but not until all means have been exhausted to settle the debt question under authority now prescribed.

The department of justice is said to have held that the debt funding commission may proceed with the work by organizing and without waiting for the senate to confirm the appointments of Senator Smoot and Representative Burton. It is held that the three cabinet appointees—Secretaries Hughes, Hoover and Mellon—having been confirmed, and constituting a quorum, could move forward with the funding plans without further delay.

At the treasury department today officials said that the commission may organize soon, if further senate delay is encountered.

LOCAL BALL SQUAD LOSES FIRST GAME TO L. A. TEAM

Coach Butterfield's Boys Are Walloped by 12 to 2 Score Yesterday Afternoon

The Glendale high school baseball team lost its first game of the season yesterday afternoon when Coach Butterfield's boys were submerged by the Los Angeles high school nine by the score of 12 to 2. The contest was played on the Pioneers' field and was witnessed by several hundred rooters.

The exhibition was the poorest showing that has yet been made by the Black and Red diamond past-timers, their form from start to finish being far below that shown in last week's Burbank game. The local didn't seem to be able to hit, field or run the bases in their usual custom, several plays of the "booby" variety being chalked up against them.

The L. A. squad began things right in their half of the opening inning when they combined four hits with a pair of errors by Second Baseman Marshall Wilson for a trio of tallies, from then on the game was a walk-away, with the Pioneer players scoring almost at will.

Line-up Greatly Changed

The game would undoubtedly have been more closely contested had Coach Butterfield kept his first string of men on the field throughout the nine innings. Practically the entire line-up was altered during the last four cantos. Aegeson, last year's veteran hurler, started in the box, but was relieved by Dale Woods in the fifth inning. They were both treated with the same amount of disrespect by the heavy hitting Blue and White wrecking crew.

Ringstad, who replaced Tommy Morgan behind the bat during the latter part of the game, was the batting star of the day for the Glendale warriors, one of his pair of hits being a long two-bagger over the center field fence. Morgan and McCourt were the only other Glendale players who seemed to be able to solve the Pioneer pitcher's delivery.

Following is a list of the Glendale players who took part in the game: Morgan and Ringstad, catchers; Aegeson and Wood, pitchers; Dutch-er and McCourt, first base; Wilson, second base; Green, third base; Ter-zow, shortstop; Giebe, left field; Kraville and Solmer, center field; Kraville, right field.

Attitude of Pope to Italian State Is Told by Cardinal

By EDWARD STRUTT
Written for International News Service
ROME, March 10.—It is unlikely that any move will be made by Pope Pius XI towards reconciliation between the vatican and the Italian state, according to the first official announcement on the subject made today.

As the result of conflicting reports, Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of state, made an exclusive statement to the International News Service explaining the attitude of the new supreme pontiff.

"The personal sentiments of Pope Pius XI towards Italy are known and appreciated," said the prelate. "He comes of a patriotic family and proved his love of his country during the war and on his mission to Poland when he was constantly in touch with Italian officers. Aram he proved it as archbishop of Milan. Too he has publicly blessed crowds and Italian soldiers.

"But as pontiff he holds in sacred deposit the rights of the Church of Rome which he swore to defend upon his accession to the throne. He can not renounce them.

"Reconciliation is based upon renunciation of the rights of the Holy See. This is impossible. Therefore there is a deadlock."

The latest indictment against jazz dancing is that it causes warts on the feet. The charge was brought by the Massachusetts Chiropody Association.

Irish Peace Plans Break Down, but No Clashes Reported

By DANIEL O'CONNELL
Written for International News Service
LIMERICK, Ireland, March 10.—"Peace negotiations" between the revolting Limerick and Tipperary battalions of the Irish republican army and the Irish provisional government at Dublin have broken down, it was revealed today.

The situation remains quiet, however, and there have been no clashes between the rebels and the loyal troops.

The rebel envoys who went to Dublin to consult with Michael Collins and other members of the provisional government returned to Limerick today. They admitted that efforts to reach a settlement had failed. The situation at present is in a state of stalemate.

The rebels demanded that the loyal troops turn over the barracks to them, but Brennan, commander of the forces in question, refused to do so.

Reinforcements have reached the rebels.

The streets are constantly patrolled by armed men, but neither side has yet made an aggressive move.

LLOYD GEORGE TO QUIT?

LONDON, March 10.—According to the Saturday Review, Premier Lloyd George has handed his resignation to Austen Chamberlain, government leader in the house of commons.

"Mr. George when the 'Irish free state act' is passed by the house of lords. The newspaper said that the premier decided not to wait for the Genoa conference "because the United States and France had torpedoed his hopes of big things from that meeting."

in the South. "On the Sea." "Swing Low" and "Heaven is My Home."

The decision was made by the class following the first of these songs to back this quartette in a Glendale concert.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Winders, of 631 East Maple street, also participated in the program. Mr. Winders singing "One Fleeting Hour," and both of them joining in a duet, "Face to Face."

Keith L. Brooks, of Pasadena, teacher of the class, and his wife, were much applauded for several musical selections upon various instruments.

The Dynamics orchestra played while the food was served by women of the church.

W. A. Horn, of 221 North Louise street, president of the class, acted as toastmaster.

The Glendale city council at this time desires further information and facts regarding the service being rendered the commuters of Glendale by present passenger carriers, and today the municipality is advertising for those interested to aid them in furnishing such material to the board of public utilities of the city of Los Angeles, so that body may determine whether the service is satisfactory to the citizens here.

TO RUSH SOLDIER BONUS

CHICAGO, March 10.—The soldier bonus bill will be reported back to the house tomorrow morning and will be passed by congress within two weeks, Joseph W. Fordney, chairman of the house ways and means committee, declared in an address here.

Fordney said that on Monday, he would ask for suspension of rules, and endeavor to rush the bill through ahead of everything else. He predicted many Democrats as well as Republicans, will vote for the bill.

Noted Artist Teaches Trades to Ex-Soldiers

DENVER — Every phase of art work, from fancy sign writing to portrait painting, is taught in Denver's Rehabilitation Art school, established nearly two years ago by the government vocational training bureau for disabled ex-service men.

The school is under the supervision of William Knapp, noted artist, and the pupils include incapacitated soldiers from various sections of the United States. The course requires three years' study.

REDUCE ARMY PERSONNEL

WASHINGTON, Mar. 10.—Reduction of the enlisted personnel of the army to 115,000 is provided by an appropriation bill completed by the military division of the house appropriations committee. This appropriation is in direct opposition to the recommendations of Secretary of War Weeks and General Pershing who declared that the army should not be reduced below 175,000. The bill will be laid before the house immediately.

2 SEPARATE STORES WILL BE OPENED ON SATURDAY

Both at Same Address and They Will Deal With Needs of Boys and Men

Two separate stores open tomorrow, Saturday, March 11, in Glendale, at the same address, 135 1/2 South Brand boulevard. They are both similar, yet very different, and in describing one you must think of both.

Ed Nisle (pronounced Niss-Lee) has a wonderful array of men's and boys' clothing, while I. B. Carlock (pronounced just as it is spelled, also) has everything else in the way of furnishings.

The latter store will be known as "I. B. Carlock, Haberdasher," and besides the usual retinue of shirts, socks, sweaters, gloves, ties, belts, and infirmities, there will be a full line of hats and caps. The proprietor has been a resident of Glendale for the last three years, and has a home at 415 Lincoln avenue. For the last six years he has managed a National Shirt Shop in Los Angeles, and knows the needs of local people.

"We are here ready to do business," he says.

High Class Suits.

Mr. Nisle announces that he will feature high class suits and overcoats for men and young men, to sell at popular prices, some with two pair of pants, at as low as $35. And he will have the Hirsch-Wickwire line for those who wish finest of clothing ready-to-wear. Boys also will be cared for and a complete boys' furnishing store will be installed.

"The Nisle guarantee means that any garment which does not give entire satisfaction, will be replaced with a new one," he says.

Mr. Nisle comes from Seattle, Washington, where for ten years he was the manager of one of the largest stores on the coast. He is now a resident of 103 North Central avenue, and believes in the future of Glendale.

Reorganization Plans of Harding Delayed

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10.—President Harding's plans for a sweeping reorganization of government departments in Washington have been delayed indefinitely, if not smashed entirely by the strenuous opposition that has cropped up in and out of the cabinet.

Formed nearly a year ago under White House direction, the Brown reorganization committee made a wide survey of existing conditions and recommended sweeping changes which were in the main approved by the president.

Laid before the cabinet, however, these changes provoked such opposition as to not only endanger the success of the plan as a whole, but they also have shattered cabinet harmony today to a considerable extent. Some cabinet officers wanted to get rid of bureaus they had and acquire others; some wanted to retain their present organizations intact, while some objected to being given additional duties.

In addition to cabinet opposition, the proposed changes met with powerful opposition from outside sources.

Who Wrote Treaty? but Does It Matter? Some Senators Ask

BY J. BART CAMPBELL.

Written for International News Service WASHINGTON, March 10.—The perplexing question of "who wrote the four power Pacific pact" continued today to vex Senators opposed to the pact. Senator Reed, Democrat, of Missouri, suggested that the moot question of its authorship promised to become as famous a conundrum as "how old is Ann?"

Reed was among the senators fighting its ratification who declared that notwithstanding the statement of a high state department official that "who wrote it does not matter," the senate was entitled to know who did draft it before being called upon to approve it.

It was estimated that a resolution calling upon President Harding to inform the senate as to who wrote the treaty probably would be launched in the senate as a sequel to the state department's refusal to reveal its author, or authors, and to the joint admission of Senators Lodge and Underwood, that they do not know whose work it was.

The criticism of the secrecy respecting its authorship, as well as the negotiations preceding the signing of it, continued to be voiced by Senators, as debate was resumed, with little prospect of a final vote on ratification for at least another week.

Senators Lodge and Underwood professed not to be disturbed by the storm of opposition breaking against the treaty. It was understood that as a result of another canvass or "count of noses," made by them, they were convinced that at least twelve Democratic votes would be cast for ratification, and not more than four Republican votes against it.

It was pointed out that twelve Democratic votes were more than enough in the judgment of the two leaders to insure ratification despite the efforts of the opposition to make further inroads on the lineup in support of the treaty.

Make Move to Build New U. S. Industries

WASHINGTON — Facing the loss of various industries which sprang up during the war, and are now dying out in this country, various government agencies are at work in an effort to build up the more valuable ones.

Among these defunct activities is the manufacture of optical glass in the United States. Most of this material came from foreign sources, especially Germany, prior to the war. When it interrupted the sources of supply an impetus was given manufacturing genius in the United States, which has since gradually disappeared.

The optical industry is of value to the country not only for economic reasons, it is pointed out today by a naval official, but also for war purposes, without which supply our military and naval manufactures would be greatly hampered.

Accordingly, the navy particularly, is engaged in stimulating as much as possible the manufacture of optical glass in this country, in an endeavor to keep it alive.

The same applies to aircraft factories of private control. In an effort to encourage this invaluable source of defensive power the navy, as well as the army and other agencies, is lending every possible aid. The navy itself has refrained from building its own planes in a desire to furnish occupation for an infant industry which has suffered seriously since the war robbed it of its market.

Eagle Glen Heights Now 40 Per Cent Sold

Eagle Glen Heights, the beautiful tract in the San Raphael hills between here and Eagle Rock which was put on the market recently by the J. Harvey McCarthy company, at ready is 40 per cent sold, it is authoritatively stated.

The majority of buyers are coming from Hollywood, it is added, because they can appreciate the beauty of the San Raphael hills as equal to those in their own neighborhood.

H. V. Henry, sales manager for the tract, states that plans are now being drawn for six residences to be erected as soon as the street improvements are put in. They will range in cost from $5,000 to $15,000 in compliance with the high restrictions.

The present indication is that all of the lots on the south side of the hill will be gone by Sunday night, Mr. Henry concludes.

Rafael Carmona Victim La Crescenta Slaying

Rafael Carmona was shot and killed last night on the ranch of Frank Urquidiz at La Crescenta. The body was brought to Glendale about midnight by Emil O. Kiefer and "Bud" Pierce in the house of Pulliam & Kiefer. They found the victim of the murder lying in an open field. The autopsy will be held tomorrow and the inquest Monday. The sheriff's office has knowledge of the murderer, it is said, and an arrest is expected momentarily.

PRICES OF CEMENT IN 1920

Preliminary estimates made by the United States Geological Survey from reports of representative producers of Portland cement show that the average factory price per barrel of Portland cement, excluding cost of container, in the United States in 1921 was approximately $1.87. The average net factory price received per barrel for the whole country in 1920, as shown by reports received from all producers was $2.02.

ARTISTS DIVIDED ON GIRL'S FINE FOR JAZZ MUSIC

Some Chicagoans Say That Sprightly Tunes Are Immoral But Others Disagree

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN

Written for International News Service CHICAGO—Jazz music—is it immoral? Chicago musicians—artists all—are divided on this question, which has thrust itself to the front as the result of the scathing condemnation from Judge Arnold Heap, of the morals court, and Superintendent of Schools Peter A. Mortenson. Judge Heap, fining a young woman $200 for the manner in which she danced to jazz music, described it as "primitive sensuality." Superintendent Mortenson pleaded with the high school girls of the city to give up dancing to jazz music "which is breaking down respect for womanhood."

But why denounce the zippy melody? musicians want to know. It may be inartistic, some say, but it certainly is not "immoral."

What Pianist Says

Says Moissaye Boguslawski, famous Russian pianist: "Anyone who considers jazz immoral must have an obscene mind. Music is the language of the soul. It appeals to the divine. There can be nothing base or immoral when it is played sincerely. Any interpretation put upon modern music rests only with the individual. I blame the dancers, not the music."

Fanny Bloomfield Zeisler, well known musician, said: "Jazz music for the most part is coarse and ugly, but not immoral. I am not crazy about it myself. I wish the tastes for music would rise. But this is a nervous age."

Max Fischel, head of the normal department of the Chicago musical college, said: "It is largely a question of mind and environment. Jazz makes you feel good. But it is not immoral. It is what you make it. The most beautiful waltz ever composed can be danced immorally."

Syncretized Church Music

The public is calling everything "jazz" that is syncretized, according to Carl B. Stein, president of the Auditorium Musical Dramatic Conservatory.

Yet, he said, you can hear syncretized music in church! "Some of the most beautiful church music is syncretized quite strongly," he said. "There is 'Hold Thou My Hand,' by Gounod. That selection is syncretized and certainly incites no immoral feelings. The soprano solo in the Easter anthem from 'Cavalleria Rusticana,' by Mascagni, also is syncretized."

Other musicians readily agreed that certain jazzy selections are demoralizing to the morals, especially in the "improper" environment.

Denies Economy Will Come Through Treaty

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON

WASHINGTON, March 10.—A rude awakening for those who dream of national economy under the naval disarmament treaty was predicted by Senator King, Democrat, of Utah. King branded as "folly" all promises of reduction in national expenses under the disarmament plan. He declared the United States navy would spend "upwards of $300,000,000 a year on developing other means of national defense while dismantling its capital ships."

King warned that no saving could be effected as the treaty applies to but three of the first ten "great powers." While opposing an alliance with foreign powers, King said he probably would vote for the pact "if it is the best that can be obtained."

"Americans will be greatly disappointed in the operation of the naval disarmament plan," said King. "Those who dream of great national economy are due for a rude awakening. This nation will spend upwards of $300,000,000 a year on developing other means of national defense while dismantling capital ships under the treaty clauses."

What the United States saves in capital ships will spend on submarines, airplanes, destroyers, torpedo boats, airplane carriers and monster mines along with other naval weapons yet to be developed."

ELECTRIC POWER FACTS

Two hundred billion electric incandescent lamps are made in the United States every year.

More than 175,000 persons own American Telephone & Telegraph stock, of whom over one-half are women.

The electric light and power industry of the nation will spend approximately $740,000,000 in 1922 for additional plants and equipment to meet the constantly increasing demands for service.

There are 13,600,000 telephones in the United States.

The annual consumption of gas in this country is approximately 320,000,000,000 cubic feet, which is double the amount used ten years ago.

The investment of the electric gas, telephone and electric street railway in Illinois aggregates $1,350,000,000.

SEEK TO PREVENT STRIKE

WASHINGTON, March 10.—With the strike vote of the bituminous coal miners rising higher and higher, the administration has renewed its efforts to bring about a conference between the operators and miners to avert the threatened strike on April 1. Secretary of Labor Davis conferred with his aides, who are familiar with the soft coal situation.

Stage All Set, but Ghost Doesn't Appear

HALIFAX, N. S., March 10.—All Antigonish county was discussing today, the failure of the ghost to appear in the famous "haunted house," at Caledonia Mills last night, when the stage was all set for him.

Whether the ghost had cold feet or not, the fact remains that although Dr. Franklin Prince, the American Scientist, and his party, and Alexander McDonald, owner of the property, and his daughter, Mary Ellen, were in the house waiting eagerly for a "manifestation." There was not the slightest disturbance. Dr. Prince and his party were bitterly disappointed as they had counted eagerly upon the grisly apparition showing his hand.

Absolutely certain that there would be development last night, Dr. Prince had made careful preparations, and the house was watched by guards. Everyone in the house was wide awake, and they kept an all-night vigil, but their patience was unrewarded. It was a bright, moonlight night, and residents of the county think that this may have discouraged the spook. Others openly stated today that the only spirits in the house are moonshine spirits.

Dr. Prince is determined to give the uneasy spirit another chance to-night. If nothing develops again, then tonight probably will see the end of his investigations.

NEW DRY HEAD ON DUTY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—Samuel F. Rutter, new state prohibition enforcement officer, announced upon assuming his duties here that entire authority will be concentrated in his office here. The dry enforcement staff will be enlarged and "flying squadrons" will work independently of the regular force.

Railroads Ask Board to Again Cut Wages

CHICAGO, March 10.—Railroads of the country have requested the United States Railway labor board to again slash wages of their employees. Cuts ranging from 4 to 27 cents per hour for employees on an hourly basis and from $10.02 to $14.28 per month for those on a monthly basis were asked of the board. Practically all railway employees except those in train service are affected.

Two hundred and five railroads and twenty-five unions are involved in the wage hearing before the board. Some of the roads, in hands of receivers, have asked for separate hearings. A few unions are seeking wage increases for the employees. The shop crafts, it was understood, will make such a plea.

"The railroads are not asking for the low level of pre-war wages," said John W. Higgins, executive secretary of the Association of Western Railroads, who made the opening presentation of the railroads today, filling an immense amount of tabulated evidence.

For track and common laborers, unskilled work, the railroads asked that they be authorized to pay the prevailing rates for such labor in the locality of employment.

Mr. Higgins presented voluminous data to show that railroad wages were uniformly higher than those paid in similar industries, a factor which the transportation act requires as a basis of consideration of a wage scale.
